

	<h2>Job Description</h2>	Form Ref.:	F-RX49
		Rev. No.:	0
		Page No.:	1 of 2

Job Title:	Technical Manager
-------------------	--------------------------

Purpose
This role involves management of key technical projects for renewable energy, production, hydrotest and completions product lines and develops products in line with industry and client requirements. Supports with technical related queries from clients, sales and manufacturing teams and oversees quality control processes for outgoing products. The role involves supporting the management of a team of laboratory staff and day to day running of a laboratory.

Requirements
Education: Chemistry Degree or equivalent. Other: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Industry Experience in a technical role and in oilfield production chemistry and water treatment. • Knowledge of laboratory working practices and methodologies. • Working knowledge of flow assurance and integrity related production chemistry challenges and prevention and remediation strategies involving the use of corrosion inhibitors, scale inhibitors/dissolvers, paraffin inhibitors, asphaltene inhibitors, biocides, H₂S and O₂ scavengers, deposit removal, demulsifier, deoiler, lubricants and cleaners • Demonstrates understanding of all areas of oilfield and water treatment production chemistry and energy production operations.

Core Responsibilities and Key Tasks
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organise and run the laboratory according to company requirements – including sales' support projects, QC, product development, selection of raw materials, technical aspects of products stewardship. • Approval of output from technical department reports and technical datasheets etc. • Be aware of technical developments with raw material suppliers, sales teams, customer contacts, conferences, and symposia etc. as opportunities arise. • Prioritise and respond to requests of sales teams and warehouse/yard by negotiation where necessary to achieve the best overall outcome with resources available. • Support manufacturing by developing manufacturing procedures commensurate with customer requirements and yard facilities. • Make appropriate recommendations for manufacturing processes. • Oversee monitoring of environmental impact of site activities – drainage, waste, emissions etc. • Be aware of legislative limitations on Company activities (REACH, CLP, COMAH, DSEAR etc.) in order to select the suitable materials and processes. • Training and development of technical staff. Conduct appraisals and performance evaluations. • Recruitment of suitable technical staff

Job Description

Form Ref.: F-RX49

Rev. No.: 0

Page No.: 2 of 2

- Manage the generation and preservation of company IP including archiving/storage of product designs, documentation, preparation of patent applications and general maintenance of the company's IP portfolio.

Other responsibilities:

- Be aware of and adhere to requirements of the company's policies, objectives, and systems in regard to Quality, Health & Safety and Environmental management.
- Contribute to policy decision making and reviews.
- Subject to the Company's workload, perform any other tasks within your capabilities for the Company as required by the Management Team.

Basic Training

Will be provided by Roemex.

Reporting

This position reports into: General Manager

Other staff jointly report to this position between Product Development Manager and Technical Manager. These positions include Senior Chemist, Chemist, and Laboratory Technicians.

Financial Authority

Authority to procure goods/services? Yes

If yes, to the value of:

Human Resource Authority

Authority to: N/A

Acknowledgement

I confirm that I have read and understood this job description and accept the responsibilities and accountabilities assigned to me.

Signed -

Date:

Signed -

Date: